Numb. 9425.

The London Gazette.

published by Authority.

From Saturday November 16, to Tuesday November 19, 1754.

St. James's, November 19.

M. Alt, Minister from the Court of Hesse Cassel, had this Day a private Audience of the King, and delivered a Letter to His Majesty from his most Serene Highness the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel.

Naples, October 16. Yesterday Cardinal Sersale, Archbishop of this City, arrived here from Sorento. 'Tis said the King has prevailed on the Pope to confer the Cardinal's Hat, that the Infant of Spain is about to resign, on Prince Tarente, his Majesty's Second Son.

Petersbourg, Oct. 18. The Great Princess, and the young Prince of whom she was lately delivered, are as well as can be wished. Most of the Regiments that were assembled during the Summer, on the Frontiers of Courland, are going into Winter Quarters in Livonia and Ingria, where they are to hold themselves in Readiness to march, as Circumstances may require. The Great Chancellor Count Bestucheff is confined to his Apartment, but we hope his Indisposition will not be attended with any fatal Consequences.

Legborn, Oct. 20. The Differences between the King of the Two Sicilies, and the Order of Malta, are upon the Point of being adjusted, on which Account their Ships pass by each other without Molestation. They write from Malta, that one of their Men of War has fallen in with an Algerine Corsair, which she took after a smart Engagement, and has brought her safe into Port.

Rome, Oct. 22. The Small-Pox continues to carry off great Numbers of the Inhabitants of this City. Cardinal Delci has received an Express from Florence, with an Account of the Death of Count Scipion, his Brother, of an Apoplectick Fit. The Persons lately confined in the Castle of St. Angelo, for playing at unlawful Games, were all fined considerable Sums, which they have since paid, and are set at Liberty.

Parma, Oct. 25. Their Highnesses our Sovereigns, who have passed some Time at Sala, are returned to Colorno, where they propose to stay till the End of next Month. The Duke of Penthievre, High Admiral of France, is expected here To-morrow or next Day from Genoa, where he landed last Saturday Night.

Stockholm, Oct. 27. Their Majesties set out Yesterday Morning from Drottningholm for Ulrichsdahl, where they propose to reside till the new Palace, that has been building for some Years in this City, is fit for their Reception, which the Workmen have engaged shall be ready by the Beginning of December next at fartheſt. The Marriage of Baron Hopken with Mademoiselle de Ribbing, one of the Ladies of the Bed-Chamber, has been declared at Court, and will be solemnized in a few Days. Within these two Months past, several Counterfeit Bank Notes for different Sums, have been discovered, and strict Search is making after the Authors of them; but 'tis generally imagined, that they were counterfeited in Finland, and afterwards brought here.

Vienna, Oct. 30 'Tis said their Imperial Majesties have already declared their Intention of going in the Spring to Trieste, in order to see that the new Regulations, for promoting the Commerce of that Port, are duly carried into Execution. The Opening of the Assembly of the States of Lower Austria is fixed for the 12th of next Month. Yesterday their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the Archdukes Joseph, Charles, and Peter Leopold, went to the Favourite, and reviewed the Regiment of Cuirassiers of Radicati, which is lately come here to relieve that of Gelhay. They are going to introduce a new Exercise amongst the Imperial Horse, which was lately performed in the Presence of Prince Lichtenstein, and greatly approved.

Copenhagen, Nov. 2. The King continues to go frequently to Jagersbourg, to take the Diversion of Hunting in that Neighbourhood. His Majesty has appointed young Count d'Osten to be one of the Gentlemen of his Bed-chamber. An Ordonnance is just published, for encouraging and promoting the Art of Refining Sugars in this Kingdom.

Berlin, Nov. 5. The Queen-Mother, who spent best Part of the Summer at Montbijou, came here last Wednesday for the Winter.

Frankfort, Nov. 6. They write from Anspach, that the Margravine, who was lately seized with the Small Pox, is out of Danger.

The

[Price Two-Pence.]

The ſame Letters add, that the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of that Name, with the Princeſs of Saxe-Cobourg, is to be celebrated at Cobourg towards the End of this Month. We have received an Account, that the Princeſs Mary Anne of Brnnſwick-Bevern, died a few Days ago in the 26th Year of her Age. We hear from Erbach, that the reigning Counteſs of that Name was ſafely delivered of a Prince on the 29th of laſt Month, who was baptized the ſame Day by the Name of Francis.

Bruſſels, Nov. 10. Prince Charles of Lorrain, and the Princeſs Charlotte his Siſter, ſet out on Thurſday laſt for the Seat of Prince Ligne, where they propoſe to ſtay ſome Days, and then to continue their Journey for Mons, where the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain intends to reſide. On Thurſday laſt Field Marſhal Count Chanclos was ſeized with an Apoplectick Fit, but he is ſince greatly recovered. Laſt Week M. Haaren, one of the Dutch Commiſſaries, returned here from the Hague.

Utrecht, Nov. 11. M. Manſvelt, ancient Burgomaſter of this City, having reſigned, on Account of his ill State of Health, the Place he held in the Council of our Regency, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has appointed his Son, M. Abraham Manſvelt, to ſucceed him; and Yeſterday he took his Seat in the ſaid Council with the uſual Formalities.

Leyden, Nov. 12. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante having appointed M. vander Marck to be Chief Magiſtrate of this City, he was accordingly inſtalled into that Office laſt Sunday; and Meſſrs. Hoogenhouck, de Bye, de Gerven, and van Buren, were declared Burgomaſters. At the ſame Time M. Schoonhoven was declared Treaſurer; and Meſſrs. van de Velde, and Alenſoon, to be Deputies, one to the Chamber of Accompts of the Generality, and the other to the College of the Admiralty of Amſterdam.

Hague, Nov. 12. Sunday being the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, the ſame was obſerved here Yeſterday, when the Ambaſſadors, Foreign Miniſters, Lords of the Regency, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, went to Court in their richeſt Habits, to compliment her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante on that Occaſion. And in the Evening Col. Yorke, the Britiſh Miniſter, gave a magnificent Supper, and a Ball; to which all Perſons of Diſtinction were invited.

Dublin, November 11.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwer'd by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: And this Day there was a numerous and ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Caſtle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices upon this happy Occaſion, before whom an Ode was performed as uſual. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

General Poſt Office, October 14, 1754.

Whereas the Poſt Boy carrying the Hungerford Branch Mail, diſpatched from this Office on Thurſday the 10th Inſtant, was, upon Saturday laſt, between Morden and Lavington in the County of Wilts, attacked and robbed, by two Highwaymen, who opened the ſaid Mail, and took thereout the Lavington and Tinehead Bags of Letters, and likewiſe took from the Poſt Boy five Shillings, and otherwiſe uſed him very cruelly.

The only Deſcription that is yet come to hand, of the two Perſons who committed this Robbery, is, that the one was mounted upon a black Horſe or Mare, the other upon a brown one.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the two Perſons, or either of them, who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or ſhall make Diſcovery, whereby both, or either of the Perſons, who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer, or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
